Bambino made nice cookies, and Bambina painted pretty pictures to take to Baba. So off went Bambino and Bambina! Baba's caravan was exciting, so the children wanted to see inside it. It had cushions everywhere, each prettier than the last. They were soft and had lovely patterns on them. Do you remember the lemonade? It came from a special press, and it was delicious! Then they had to choose which kind of juice they liked best: strawberry, lime, plum, grape, banana, or orange. The children were very happy that Baba liked her presents so much. When it was time to say goodbye, Baba invited the children to come again whenever they liked, because she was their friend.

Let's have a glass each of nice lemonade,
Of nice lemonade, of nice lemonade.
The squeezer is just as much fun as a toy,
And goodness, the juice is delicious!
